

Meet the new

culturewizard™
by RW3, LLC

A Next Generation eLearning Facility

- Get comprehensive cultural insights into over 150 countries.
- Develop a global mindset.
- Learn global business skills.
- Manage, lead and communicate effectively with people from all different backgrounds, cultures, countries.
- Increase your productivity on a global team or project.
- Discover how to adapt your style and cultural expectations.
- Prepare for an international assignment or business trip.
- Develop leadership skills for a global career.

New technology enables you to target your learning experience

- Assesses your needs and interests.
- Feeds you content based on defined objectives and learning history.
- The more you use it, the more it gets to know you!
- Learning delivered in short segments—"snackable bites"—to fit easily into busy work schedules.
- Tracks your learning journey to help you continually build your global business skills.

CultureWizard Tools and Resources

Cultural Awareness Course

This complete, interactive course teaches what culture is, where it comes from, and how to recognize culturally based behaviors. Concise, mini lessons build so you learn to successfully navigate today's global environment.

Culture Calculator

Discover your personal cultural preferences and graphically compare to 150+ other cultures to see where you might face intercultural challenges. Explanations and action-tips show you how to bridge differences.

Country Profiles

Culturally focused in-depth information on 150+ countries. Get practical, actionable information for business and social interactions on over 80 topics. Avoid faux pas and be most effective in your international travels. Unique sections for expats.

Adjustment Cycle Course

Culture shock is real and impacts international assignees and families. Packed with crucial information, you'll identify the stages of adjustment and find ways to manage all the ups-and-downs. Special section on repatriation.

The SAGE

(Self-Assessment for Global Endeavors)

This validated online assessment for international assignees and spouses is used by thousands. Assignees and partners identify strengths and potential challenges they may confront on an assignment.

Global Mindset Course

Possessing a Global Mindset is an invaluable asset. Using games and assessments, along with other materials you'll learn to read behavior and instinctively adjust your style to interact with people from anywhere in the world.

WorkingWith Courses

Unique, country-specific interactive courses prepare you to be immediately effective. Courses can be standalone eLearning tools or can be integrated with CultureWizard Instructor-Led Training. Perfect for Business Travelers and International Assignees.

Global Teams Tool

Compare your personal cultural profile and with those from other countries to see how you can flex your style for greatest productivity. Start to work effectively on a multicultural team.

Virtual Teams Course

Learn to adapt personal style to the unique challenges of working virtually across borders. You'll create more effective virtual teams by building trust, establishing relationships, overcoming cultural miscommunication and more.

TeamWork Tool

One of our most popular tools, TeamWork catapults your ability to collaborate with teammates by comparing the team's cultural preferences and seeing where you need to bridge differences. Targeted suggestions enhance team communication and effectiveness. Become a high performing global team!

Global Leadership Course

What makes you a successful leader in one culture may not work in another. Using games, tools and practice scenarios this course helps you translate your innate leadership skills to help you become a strong, global leader.

Global Leadership Development

Identify strengths and abilities to work with and manage people from other cultures, enabling you to examine your readiness for global leadership and the areas in which you need to develop yourself.

